

7.1.9 Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens (within 500 words).

Response:

The institution's national spirit is reflected in its celebration of national days, birth and death anniversaries of significant Indian personalities. Independence Day, Republic Day and Teacher's Day are observed on the campus with great fervor and national spirit. The activities inform students about the fundamental rights and duties as mentioned in the Constitution of India and make them aware of their responsibilities as Indian citizens.

Students participate enthusiastically in such events and imbibe the thoughts of great Indian leaders. Valuable messages given by the vice-chairman on the special occasions orient them towards national integrity and their role in nation building

Independence Day: The event is observed in honor of the eminent personalities of Indian freedom struggle and aims at imparting the values practiced by them to the present generation. The hoisting of the national flag by the vice chairman is followed by the march-past of the NSS Unit. The vice chairman on the dais impart their knowledge about the struggle for independence. Cultural activities like songs regarding the superiority of our nation and flag and the event comes to a close with the national anthem

Republic Day: It is celebrated on January 26th to honor the day the Constitution of India came into enforcement. The guest is welcomed with a guard of honor by the captains of the NSS Unit. The hoisting of the national flag by the vice chairman is followed by the march-past of the NSS Unit and the event becomes a beautiful spectacle. Staff and students are informed of their duties and responsibilities towards the nation as the vice chairman on the dais impart their knowledge about the Indian Constitution. Cultural activities like songs and dances are presented and the event comes to a close with the national anthem

Teacher's Day: Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan's birth anniversary on 5th September is observed as Teacher's Day. Sports and Cultural Committee organizes the event, where students take the lead to honor the staff members. Principal along with the faculty pay tributes to Dr. Radha Krishnan and teacher-student association is emphasized through their messages. The same day reinforces the values of service and charity to the poor as it is the death anniversary of the great saint, Mother Teresa. Students are briefed about the Nobel Peace Prize winner and her service to the Indian society. Cultural activities like drama, songs and dances are presented

Yoga day: June 21 is an International Day of Yoga. Yoga day is celebrated by institution to Practice Ahimsa, to Clear their space and discard junk, to take a ritual bath or to develop ethics in students in association with palimeru yoga Centre. Yoga teacher thought different type yoga asanas to students. And the event comes to close with honoring the yoga teacher.

Apart from these, to inculcate values and to inspire their personal and professional development, International Women's Day, girl child day and youth day are celebrated which create awareness among the young students about their role and contribution to the society and to make them as a socially responsible persons. The Staff members are encouraged students to take part in all the commemorative days which initiate them into decision making roles and learn about guidelines to make them as responsible citizens.
