Programme: Seminar on "Combatting Ragging by understanding the Antiragging Act and Offences"

Date: 01-03-2024

Number of students attended: 73

Name of the Speaker: Yarlagadda Satyambika, M.Pharm., L.L.B.,

Advocate in Kakinada Bar Association.

On 01-03-2024, a seminar titled "Combatting Ragging by understanding the Antiragging Act and Offences" was conducted at Aditya college of Pharmacy Seminar Hall. The seminar aimed to address the pressing issue of ragging in educational institutions by providing insights into the legal framework established to combat such behaviors.

A comprehensive presentation on the Antiragging Act and associated offenses was delivered by Yarlagadda Satyambika. The presentation delineated the provisions of the Act, including the definition of ragging, penalties for offenders, and the responsibility of educational institutions in prevention and reporting. Attendees gained a deeper understanding of the legal ramifications of engaging in ragging activities.

Key takeaways from the seminar included increased legal awareness among students, collaborative efforts to address ragging, and the importance of preventive measures in creating a safe learning environment. The seminar concluded with a call for sustained action and advocacy to eliminate ragging from educational institutions.
