Don't wait for an opportunity create it ' is what Aditya is teaching me about. This world is full of challenges my college and its team are doing a tremendous job in teaching the students not only from our state nor India but from different countries the way to face them and make their own life. A colorful one. Through C.R.T classes and many projects and workshops we are trained to take up on any kind of challenge. Aditya is helping me in many ways to pave my path towards a bright future.
