USER INTERFACE OF ECAP:

The web page of college automation with three types of login are shown

1. Employee login

2. Student login

3. Parent login

The screenshot displays the website of Aditya College of Engineering. The header includes the college's name, approval status (AICTE, JNTUK, NAAC), and contact information. Below the header is a banner image showing students in a library and classroom. A blue speech bubble on the left points to the login section with the text "ECAP - LOGIN". The login section features three distinct login forms: "Employee Login" (purple header), "Student Login" (orange header), and "Parent Login" (blue header). Each form contains fields for "User Name" and "Password", and a "LOGIN" button. Below the login forms, there is a link that says "Click here to online payment without login". The footer of the website contains copyright information and a date stamp.
